

My fly was down today,
Walking down the hall,
Down those steps,
Out the door,
My fly was down,
I entered the room,
My fly was down,
I met your seeing eyes,
My flow was down,
I walked past,
I sat down,
And you never mentioned,
My fly was down.

My smile was down today,
Walked down those halls,
Down the steps,
Out that door,
My smile was down,
I entered your room,
My smile was sown,
I met your blushing eyes,
My smile was down,
I walked down,
I sat past,
And you pretended you didn't know,
My smile was down.

It was just hanging there!
For everyone to see!
You said nothing!
Did nothing!
Just a word might have saved me!
Just a motion might have loved me!
yet there it was for all to see,
My smile was down today.
